

In 1818 the second session of the Indiana General Assembly appropriated $98.75 to the Indiana Supreme Court for the purchase of books and the creation of its own seal. The Court has used this seal ever since. The Indiana Supreme Court Seal is required by Indiana Code 33-24-3-3.

The Latin phrase, “Supremum Jus Lege Suprema,” on the seal translates: “Justice exists when the law is supreme.”

